Mentoring Participation

For the 1-1 mentoring all mentors and mentees are also aware of clear boundaries in place.

Consent must be given for the following...

I consent to my child receiving 5x45 minutes online sessions with their assigned mentor and email follow-up after the session. Parents must be cc'd into all emails. After the mentoring has finished the mentor can decide about appropriate contact going forward- this can only involve contact via email (which the parent is cc'd into) and ad-hoc phone calls (on a parent's phone)/ad-hoc online sessions (that the parent is fully aware of) to help the continuation of the mentoring process. In some cases no more contact will be needed after the 5 weeks and future contact (within the agreed boundaries) is at the discretion of the mentor and mentee.

If these rules are broken it will be reported to the safeguarding lead, with appropriate action taken.

For the player council all players and Jack/Lucy are also aware of clear boundaries in place.

Consent must be given for the following...

Players can message their own gender outside of the group but cannot message Jack/Lucy/other gender outside of the group individually. Similarly Jack/Lucy will not message them outside of the group individually.
